Note from the Director

Seussical: the kind of world I'm sure we've all created in our minds at some point, perhaps with a different name. Let's be honest, we've all had those days where we live in our imaginations, where we wished we were someone else, where we lived in a different world, where we met the strangest and coolest people in the world, even if they were imaginary friends. I invite all of you to enjoy this amazing story and let your imaginations fly. We all have wings and we all can fly, it's just up to us to believe it. Enjoy the show!

Andrés López-Alicea

Director, Seussical JR

Note from the Producer

The history of LUX Performing Arts began nine years ago, when I started a voice studio called Singing with Molly. Over the following years, Singing with Molly grew from a few students into a studio too big for one teacher. In 2019 I brought on teaching artists and expanded our course offerings to include acting, film, songwriting, and more. The studio's new name, LUX, light in Latin, was chosen to reflect my passion for illuminating young talent. We have faced some unique growing pains, as the pandemic hit just after we had the grand opening of our first brick and mortar location. We moved the school online, and now have found a new home with Jersey City Theatre Center and Impress Ballroom on Newark Ave. In short, we've been growing, adapting, and changing... a LOT!

This school would be nothing without our amazing students and families. I want to thank every parent volunteer who have worked endlessly to help bring Seussical to life. I want to thank the entire artistic team of Seussical for constantly going above and beyond.

Thank you Jersey City Theatre Center for hosting our performance.

"If you open your mind, oh the things you will find, lining up to get loose!"

Enjoy the show,

Molly Dunn

Founder and Artistic Director of LUX Performing Arts
